

IMPORTANT NOTICE

- If a candidate has taken admission in 1st Round by paying fees and in case he/she gets a seat in Second round of Online Counselling, his/her seat of First Round will automatically get cancelled. He will not have any claim on the seat got in 1st round. For refund of Fees, student should contact the institute. The Fees will be refunded as per rules mentioned in the Information Brochure.

For taking admission in the college, where seat is allotted in 2nd round, the candidate has to deposit FEES afresh again in the allotted college during Reporting period.

- If the candidate does not deposit fees in the allotted institute of Second round of Counseling, but has taken admission by paying fees in the first round, his both seats shall stand cancelled. For refund of fees, the rules and regulations as mentioned in the information brochure shall be applicable.
- If the candidate does not get any seat in second round of counselling and have got admission by paying fees in the first round of counselling, then first counselling seat shall be retained.
- If the candidate does not get any seat in second round of counselling and has not deposited fees in first round of counseling, then he/she will not get any seat.
- For withdrawal of seat during Counselling, the candidate should report to the Punjab Technical University alongwith the documents.